Excerpts of the Reverend Al Whittinghill

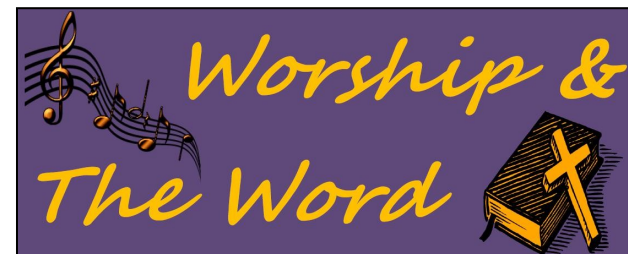

Every great revival or spiritual awakening in history has come in answer to sincere believing prayer from broken, cleansed, and believing hearts. As we gather together to join our hearts in seeking His face and listening to His Word, it is right that each of us takes time to open our heart to the gaze of our loving, holy God and be completely honest with Him. We should sincerely prepare our hearts and come before the Lord with humble expectation.

The Holy Spirit of God desires to lovingly make us aware of any areas in our life that may be hindering our fellowship with Him, and other believers, and thus limiting our going deep with Him and limiting our effectiveness as Christians for the glory of God.

Let us therefore, each one, listen to His Holy Spirit and allow Him to do His deep work in us, enabling us to face the real and authentic issues in our lives. No child of God will ever regret doing this!

Then, by His grace...let us pray for one another and believe God to do a great work in every heart! Just think what would happen if our gracious God had His way with each person in the church!

Come join us this evening at 7:00 pm in the Sanctuary to hear Reverend Al Whittinghill speak on "Revival ~ Man's Way or God's Way?"
