A Word To The Church

Joshua 1:4-11

The name “Joshua” means, “Yahweh saves.” What Jesus is to God’s people in a larger sense Joshua was to the Israelites in a smaller sense. Joshua brought God’s people into the realization of many of God’s plans and purposes for them.

Joshua reveals that because God loves people He hates sin. Of course, He also hates sin because it offends His holiness. However, in Joshua I believe the emphasis is on God’s concern for the Israelites more than the vindication of His holiness.

In the Gospels, we hear and see the wrath of God manifested in Jesus’ words and works against the Pharisees for their sins. In Joshua we see God commanding and leading the Israelites in violent mortal conflict with sinners.

The reason God wages war against sin and sinners is that He loves people and wants to save them from the destruction resulting from sin and its consequences. If God is not a God of war, then He cannot be a God of love. To illustrate, a loving father will oppose anyone who tries to destroy his family members.

We can see God’s hatred of sin in His dealings with the Canaanites and in His dealings with the Israelites in Joshua. In short, Joshua reveals that God wages war against sin wherever He finds it. He patiently waits for people to repent, but if they do not judge sin themselves, He will judge it. Joshua teaches us how God deals with sin.

1. Faith involves accepting God’s standard of holiness. We tend to undervalue the need for personal and corporate holiness in our day, because God is not judging sin immediately, as He did in Joshua’s day. This is the day of His patience. This is why the Christian must pay attention to his or her inner life: our thought life.
2. Faith also means abandonment to God’s will. God has revealed in His Word how His people can experience all He wants them to have. Because God’s ways are not the ways that we would choose we have trouble trusting God and committing ourselves wholeheartedly to His will.
3. Faith also involves achievement in God’s might. It is God who wins the victories. Without God, His people can do nothing productive. However, with Him all things are possible.
4. Joshua reveals that God hates sin. He is at war with it because it offends Him, but also because it destroys the people He has created to have fellowship with Himself. We must acknowledge that victories are the result of His might, not our own.
